

BUSINESS CHART READING

Rivena Studio

A timing map for the decisions ahead. Every window carries its reason and its evidence label.

01 The timing map

Windows rank across the horizon. Each shows its dates, its state, the force in plain language, and the evidence behind it.

WINDOW	DATES	STATE	FORCE SUMMARY	EVIDENCE
Jupiter/ Venus period	Jul 19, 2026 – Jul 19, 2027	 Neutral	Venus steers the home market and recurring income streams, but sits in a middling state, so those areas move without strong momentum. Jupiter guides operations and long-range expansion, yet its mixed state means service loads and distant ventures need careful watching rather than bold bets.	Classical · Synthesis
Mercury retrograde	Jul 19 – Jul 24, 2026	 Caution	Mercury stations and moves in reverse through this span. Contracts, paperwork and messages want a second read before they go out.	Classical

Current transits. Jupiter currently moves through Cancer; Saturn currently moves through Pisces. Read against the natal Moon in Capricorn. Classical

02 Identity

Rivena Studio carries a Libra Moon in its company chart, which points to a venture built around aesthetics, relationships, and the quality of what it puts in front of people. The owner chart holds a Capricorn Moon, suggesting the person behind the work applies steady, disciplined judgment to how the studio earns and spends. Jupiter governs the current mahadasha, a long sixteen-year arc that began in late 2017 and runs through 2033, lending the studio a pull toward principled growth and considered counsel rather than rapid, reckless scale. Venus holds the antardasha through mid-2028, reinforcing the Libra Moon's own character: brand, attraction, and partnership are the active levers right now. The Moon then steps into the pratyantardasha from mid-June through early September 2026, briefly sharpening focus on customer sentiment and cash rhythm during an already Venus-colored season. Synthesis

03 The honest hard parts

The Jupiter/Venus period running through mid-2028 carries a quiet structural pressure that is easy to miss beneath any surface momentum. Venus governs brand and partnership, and when Saturn's disciplining weight is also present in the chart, the harder truths tend to surface in the form of contracts that take longer than expected, or relationships that require more maintenance than they first appeared to need. The company Moon sits in Libra, a sign Saturn rules by exaltation rather than ownership, which can create a rhythm where cash flow and customer sentiment feel steady enough until a delayed payment or a shifting partner suddenly makes the underlying thinness visible. These are seasonal caution periods, not certainties, but they do suggest that Rivena Studio will likely face at least one window where the pace of real structural work quietly outstrips the pace of visible reward. Synthesis

04 Working practices

Rivena Studio sits inside a Jupiter mahadasha that runs through 2033, a long structural window that favors steady accumulation over sharp bursts. The active Venus antardasha, running through mid-2028, strengthens the brand and relationship signals in the chart, so this period tends to suit partnership outreach, client-facing refinement, and visibility work rather than aggressive internal restructuring. The Moon pratyantardasha active through early September 2026 adds a short pulse of heightened public and cash-flow sensitivity, making it a reasonable season to test pricing, gather customer response, and watch receivables closely rather than commit to large new costs. When this Moon pulse passes and the Venus period continues on its own, consolidate what the summer revealed, then use the remaining Venus window to deepen the partnerships and brand positioning that Jupiter's expansionary tone will carry forward. Synthesis
